

Adult Acting Classes

The Suzuki Method

Release yourself from your personal vocal and physical habits with this Suzuki based approach to voice and bodywork. Eric Zivot, a founding member of the Association of Theater Movement Trainers, will teach you the tools to reach your personal potential. This class is recommended for actors with previous performance experience, however all levels are welcome. Please bring a short Shakespeare monologue to work on in class and wear workout clothes and athletic shoes.

Dates: Tuesdays, Oct. 24, 31, Nov. 7, 14, 21, Dec. 5, 2006
Times: 7:00pm – 9:00pm Fee: $175.00

Shakespeare In Performance

Get on your feet and be prepared to delve deep in this active Shakespeare class. Taught by Artistic Director, Jim Helsing, this acting class will focus on Shakespeare's text using scenes and monologues. This is Mr. Helsing's first acting class that is available to the public in several years and the Festival is delighted to offer the unique one-on-one coaching of its esteemed Artistic Director. Whether you are an experienced actor or a newcomer, this class will work with you on capturing the spirit of Shakespeare in Performance!

Dates: Saturdays, September 23 – November 18, 2006
Times: 11:00am – 1:00pm Fee: $190.00

MEET YOUR TEACHERS AT A FREE PERFORMANCE

- Watch your teachers perform!
- Play theater games with your entire family!
- Learn Festival secrets on a backstage tour!

Come meet the Festival's acting teachers and watch them perform a reading of Hansel and Gretel on Saturday, September 16 at 10:00 a.m. This 50-minute "radio play-style" reading will be followed by a family acting game session and a tour of our theaters. There is no charge to attend this morning of fun, but we request that you call ahead to let us know to expect you. 407-447-1700 x254

What a Summer!

Many thanks to our friends, teachers and students who made Shakespeare Summer Camps 2006 simply amazing. Over 110 students attended 7 different camps focusing on plays as diverse as Hamlet, The Tempest, Much Ado About Nothing, Macbeth, A Midsummer Night's Dream, and, of course, Romeo and Juliet. The Young Company's production of Richard III, sponsored by The English Speaking Union, was absolutely stunning and proved, once again, the relevance of Shakespeare's ideas and dreams to our modern world.

A Fond Farewell

There were many hugs and tears this June as Sarah Hankins, long-time actor, teacher and director of

The Young Company, left the Festival to pursue her dreams in New York City. As Internship Coordinator for the Festival since 2001, Sarah was responsible for shepherding over 30 actors through our intensive nine-month program. As the director for The Young Company, she took students on a flight to new heights with her malicious Macbeth, a frisky 1920's The Taming of the Shrew, and a bloody and beautiful Richard III. We hope to be able to lure her back next summer for another unforgettable TYC.

All The World's a Stage!

Every year Festival actors and directors visit hundreds of Central Florida classrooms, homeschools and community centers with our interactive Shakespeare residencies. In-School Residencies give us the opportunity to share our love of Shakespeare with diverse groups of students and teachers.

For more information on our residencies, please call our Education Director, April-Dawn Gladu at 407-447-1700 x208
